=====

Amnesty International has received reliable information that these four people were first taken to the headquarters of the Army Cavalry and were then transferred to the headquarters of Policía de Hacienda (Treasury Police). However, the authorities have still not acknowledged their detention and Amnesty International continues to be seriously concerned about their safety.

Further recommended action:

Urgent Action participants may continue to send letters to the Salvadorian authorities requesting clarification of the whereabouts and legal situation of these four people and urging them to do everything possible to ensure their physical safety.

Appeals should be sent to: Coronel Francisco Morán
 Director de la Policía de Hacienda
 Policía de Hacienda
 San Salvador, El Salvador

Appeals may continue until you receive further information from the International Secretariat.
